

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines

CULTURAL ADRIATIC DISCOVERY

As a family-run cruise line, Fred. Olsen really take your experience personally. While the rest of the cruise industry has gone for bigger ships, Fred. Olsen has always believed that smaller is better. They have less guests on board so the service is personal and the atmosphere is warm and friendly. Their elegant, smaller ships can reach places the bigger ships cannot and are able to dock at smaller ports in more interesting places. This passion for cruising has led to them having more returning guests than any other cruise line.

Fred. Olsen have designed this itinerary to take you on a discovery of the fascinating history and culture of the Mediterranean and Adriatic.

THE OLSEN WAY HIGHLIGHTS

This cruise has been designed to offer an insight into the fascinating yet turbulent history of the Mediterranean and Adriatic, a region shaped by different conflicts over the centuries.

You can delve into the history of the Phoenicians at Carthage from La Goulette and explore Cartagena's Roman sites, accompanied by a local archaeologist. Two calls to Croatia will present Diocletian's Palace in Split and the Walls of Dubrovnik, which have protected the city for centuries.

You can uncover many natural wonders too, from the cascading waterfalls of Croatia's Krka National Park to Montenegro's Lovćen National Park. Borealis will also cruise the fjord-like Bay of Kotor to reach the fortified town of Kotor.
