SCENIC FJORDS & MOUNTAINS OF NORWAY

From towering cliffs to mirror-like waters, the dramatic beauty of Norway's fjords never fails to inspire. Glide along Lysefjord, only navigable by smaller ships and watched over by the sheer face of Pulpit Rock, and experience the remote tranquillity of Nordfjord and Lustrafjord. You'll also sail Norway's two longest waterways – majestic Sognefjord and orchard-dotted Hardangerfjord. Step ashore in Skjolden, Norway's innermost fjord village, where mountains rise from still waters, and in Bergen, with its colourful Bryggen wharf and funicular rides up Mount Fløyen. A visit to Eidfjord completes the picture, gateway to Hardangervidda National Park, with its tumbling Vøringsfoss Waterfall and untamed scenery offering a fitting finale.
