

GERMAN CHRISTMAS MARKETS

In the run-up to the big day, there's no better way to embrace the festive spirit than on a cruise to explore Christmas Markets. Hamburg is home to one of Germany's most renowned, and we've planned an overnight stay so you can soak up the atmosphere by day and night. The Rathausmarkt in Town Hall Square comes alive at this time of year, with charming wooden huts twinkling with lights, offering everything from handmade crafts and ornaments to wooden toys. Warm up with a steaming mug of glühwein and sample traditional specialities like lebkuchen, bratwurst and roasted chestnuts. We'll round off your Christmas Markets cruise with a call to the pretty harbour town of Honfleur, with its cobbled streets and colourful half-timbered houses.
