LEGENDS & LANDMARKS OF IRELAND

Explore Ireland's dramatic coastlines, soaring cliffs and scenic landscapes on this journey around the 'Emerald Isle'. Borealis will sail along the renowned Wild Atlantic Way, a coastal route featuring iconic sights such as the Slieve League Cliffs and the Cliffs of Moher. You'll visit three ports that are ideal for immersing yourself in Gaelic culture. In Killybegs, perhaps try fishing or visit the story-rich village of Glencolmcille in County Donegal. Galway, often referred to as Ireland's cultural heart, boasts cobbled streets, colourful shopfronts and over 450 pubs, perfect for enjoying Irish music, sipping local whiskey or Guinness, or participating in traditional céilí dancing. Lastly, Cobh – Titanic's final port of call before its ill-fated voyage across the Atlantic – offers a poignant glimpse into the past at the Titanic Experience or chances to explore nearby Cork and uncover the legends behind the famous Blarney Stone.
